

Your Invitation for a Christmas at Larcomb

A Christmas Carol (Kind Of)

What the Dickens have you got planned for your 2022 Christmas work function?

Let Larcomb take care of your entire evening supplying everything from your vineyard venue, festive food and drinks, to the hilarious entertainment woven throughout.

With intimate rooms for 40 or our large rustic barn for 250, we will do everything for your guests, all you have to do is choose who to invite (or not!). Arrival drinks, mains and desserts will be served with bite sized performances in between, seamlessly handing over to the CEO for any formalities you require.

Two of Christchurch's top comedians perform one of the most loved Christmas stories of all time, including all the characters from Scrooge to Tiny Tim, the Christmas Ghosts and the entire city of London. The style of show is entirely adjustable for family audiences, Dickensian fanatics or your factory workers who wont sit still unless someone is offended.

Change your Christmas FUTURE to a good one and book now for A Christmas Carol (Kind of) while tickets last.
